Min No.	Item	Actions
59 59.1	Apologies All Councillors were in attendance.
60 60.1	Declaration of Personal & Prejudicial Interest Cllr J Williams had a personal and prejudicial interest in item 64 and would leave the meeting for this item.
61 61.1	To receive any requests for dispensation Cllr Price was granted dispensation to speak on item 62.
62 62.1 62.2	Grant Application An application had been received from Manor Primary Academy PTFA for £450 to be matched with £400 of their own funds to create a Community Library within school grounds which can be accessed by children of the school as well as villagers. It was proposed to approve a grant of £450 but also to ask that the library be properly affixed to the ground and suitably protected against the weather. Cllrs also asked that the PTFA also consider allowing access to the library on the occasional Saturday or outside school hours so that residents who work during the day can have access to the library. Proposed; Cllr Wilson; Seconded: Cllr Bridge The motion was agreed	 Clerk to action
63 63.1	Exclusion of the Public The public was excluded because of the likely disclosure of exempt information as defined in Public Bodies (Admissions to Meetings) Act 1960 Section 2. Cllr John Williams left the meeting.
64 64.1	Parish Clerk Vacancy The Council considered the notes from the two interviews held for the position. It was proposed to offer the position to the successful candidate and following a Councillors request, the voting on the appointment was recorded as being 3:2 in favour.
